Dear Sir:

in October's Century I see a short account of "Last Days of Napoleon". When I was in Washington four years ago I do not remember seeing it in your gallery; but five years ago it was an exhibition in our Metropolitan Museum as a loan.
Can it be the same? and does it belong to the Corcoran Gallery?
It represented the hero propped up by pillows; a map open on his knees - his head hung in sorrowful contemplation.
Is there any charge for the privilege of copying? Are easels & stools rented in the gallery, or do artists bring them? I ask all these questions as I hope to be able copy over to work this summer in the Corcoran Gallery and would like to know some thing about the rules and regulations attending the copying.

You will greatly oblige me
by answering these questions directly &

To the Trustees

Gentlemen

We have for sale a Japanese Curio (15 guineas) and pair of very ancient Japanese Vases (50 guineas) almost unique

By the kind courtesy of my late friend, Mr Perry Cole KCB - they were inspected a few months since on behalf of the South Kennington Museum, by G. Wallis Esq. F.S.A. - Museum Keeper. His Collection - who would have taken them at once for the Nation, if they had not already had a pair of Vases very closely resembling them.
He thought so highly of them, that he took particulars for the purpose of placing them in a Provincial Museum at some future date.
He said they were all genuine, very old - Quite worthy of the South Kennington Museum, and very reasonable in price

I have written to Messrs J. S. Morgan & Co of this city on the subject, and they advise my writing to you direct. and I shall be glad to hear that they may suit you

They are open to inspection at this office

I am Gentlemen
Your obedient servant

Dear Sir

I do not find it will be best for me to return to Washington this fall, although I shall certainly do so in the future if I live. So please keep my picture safely and when I return if care can be taken will accomplish

it & will finish it to your satisfaction. It is with so much regret that I postpone my return but I will be better on account of my financial affairs.

Respectfully

William Macleod Esq^r

My dear Sir

Mr. Corcoran's esteemed favor through you is in hand, also the photograph to be put on steel.

It is an unusually successful picture, - in pose, in likeness, and in other elements of good work, and an admirable plate can be made from it, especially with the improvement beyond the chair suggested in your letter.

Since it is left optional with me to do it myself or to get it done, I select to do it myself, and am rejoiced at the opportunity afforded to distinguish myself on such a subject, I mean both subject and picture. I know I shall more than satisfy, feeling the pleasure I do in this work.

I propose to myself to cover nearly the whole surface with line and with stipple, chiefly the former, and tenderly blend the whole with a faint film of Mezzotint. To carry forward the work to the last finish in pure line and stipple in the time left before publication, would be impossible to any one.

I am sorry to learn that Mr. Corcoran has been unwell, and trust he may soon be again as well as usual. Please present to him my best regards and wishes.

With great respect

Yours truly
J. M. Sartain

P.S. I have seen the picture of "Charlotte Corday in prison" - round at Charles's, and admired it, but did not know it was yours. I congratulate you on so successful a copy.

Pleasant things happen to one sometimes. Some kind friend presented some of my work to the Princess Marie de Lusignan, Cyprus and Arminia, who resides in Paris, and she was pleased to surprise me with the titles of "Chevalier de Honneur", and Commandeur in the Royal Ordre of Melusine.

Moreover a Society for the "Encouragement of Art, Letters, and Science" in Naples, has awarded me their gold Medal of the 1st Class, and made me Honorary President of the Society.

These were for my work, but the Decoration from the King of Italy with title, was for my management of the Art Department of the Centennial.

You see how boastful I have become.

works of Art for sale on commission by H. S. Philpot (M.A. Oxon) - Nov. 1882.

1. Joseph Severn - Reduced copies in oil of 10 of the most famous Italian pictures. Now on exhibition at one of the London literary clubs, and pronounced by the President of the Royal Academy and other competent judges to be the best copies yet executed on that scale.
Mr Severn, owing to his friendship for many American citizens in Rome & elsewhere, expressed a wish that this collection should find a place in some American Institution, & for this reason they are offered at a very moderate price.

2. Portrait of John Keats - by his friend
Joseph Severn - in crayon from life;
size about 18 x 12.

Another portrait of Keats by Severn is in the National Portrait Gallery, London.

3. Van Dyck, Infant Christ & St John
- a genuine work in good preservation.
Has been in the possession of an old English family for 150 years.

Price 3000 £

4. George Cruikshank - The unique collection of 100 oil paintings watercolour drawings and original sketches, together with more than 1000 ~~more~~ proof etchings, arranged by the artist himself.

This collection is complete, and contains
G. C.'s illustrations to Scott, Dickens etc.

5. Copley Fielding - fine landscape in oils by this famous old English master.

6. Collection of 200 etchings, including specimens
by Rembrandt, Blake, Costigline, Della Porta etc.

Price 750 £

7. Collection of original drawings

including Van Dyck Andrea del Sarto
Blake et al.
